

Sewing With Jennifer Serr

2011/2012

Welcome to Sewing with Jennifer Serr. In my classes, we embrace the exciting world of craft and design. Students will cultivate many skills including the use of color, composition, sewing and creative thinking. We will explore numerous avenues of inspiration through our work on each project.

Each camp day will begin with a short demonstration and practice of a sewing or design technique, followed by work on the sewing project..

Each student will need to come prepared with a sewing box and portable sewing machine. You will also need fabric and a commercial sewing pattern unless specified in class description.

Supplies

General Sewing Supplies for your sewing box, basket or bag:

Paper Scissors, Fabric Scissors, Sewing Machine Needles, Hand sewing Needles, Thread, Seam Ripper, Pins, Soft Measuring Tape, 2” x 18” Flexible Clear Ruler ,Pens, pencils, eraser,

Bring to Class:

Sewing machine and sewing box (see above). A pattern and Fashion fabric along with sewing notions appropriate to your project--zippers, thread, buttons, hook & eye closures etc. (see pattern envelope for a list)

Pricing & Schedule

Wednesday Sewing Groups - $30/ per week or $110/ 4 class session - 9:30am – 11:30 am

Bring a project to work on while I guide you through the process from start to finish. Instruction is geared to the level of the student, offering ways to improve existing skills or cultivate new ones.

Class Located at Rhythmix Cultural Works - 2513 Blanding Street in Alameda, near the Nob Hill Shopping Center
